SOME MORMONS DIFFERENT

The report of the Federal Grand Jury on the possibility of the local Mormon Church's being in part responsible for the frequent cases of bigamy found here has brought forth the distinction between the two branches of the church which exist here. The actual Mormons are represented here in great number, but, on the other hand, there is also a large congregation of the Reformed Church of Latter Day Saints, which has decidedly put its foot down against bigamy and polygamous practices.

MORMONS AND BIGAMY

of the evidence concerning them, however, was hearsay, and we discovered no sufficient reasons or grounds for returning indictments.

Several cases before us, however, have led us to believe that for some reason other than the laws of the United States of America relative to marriage are being constantly violated. Whether this violation is the result of the teachings of the church in question, or whether it is the result of other causes we are unable to say.

In any event, we urge that the representatives of the Department of Justice of the United States of America in Honolulu, to-wit: the United States Marshal and the United States District Attorney, continue to exercise the vigilance they have shown in the past on these offenses, and that they vigorously prosecute all violations of the marriage laws which shall be brought to their attention.

The expeditious manner in which we have been enabled to perform our duties has been due to the efforts of the representatives of the Department of Justice, and we desire to express to them our appreciation of the manner in which their duties have been performed. Jurors as a rule desire expedition in court matters, and always appreciate the efforts of officials to avoid delay.

Charles B. Wells, indictment, embezzlement P. O. money order funds. Wong Hon, Wong Kock Yil, Dong Tong, and Chong Cheong, indictment, conspiracy to commit a crime against the United States.

Lee Sa Kee, indictment, adultery. Tai Fook Tai, indictment, bigamy. Mokui, indictment, bigamy.

Melo Kahaloa, otherwise called Emely Anne Ahia, indictment, bigamy. Ito Nakato, indictment, illicit distilling.

Judge Dole then discharged the jurors rendering his thanks to them for their work, in about the following language:

"I desire to express my appreciation of the rapid work done by the jury and to thank in behalf of the public for faithfulness and the good work done, not only in cases which were brought to its attention, but also in other matters."

"The cases in regard to violations of the marriage laws are matters of great interest to the representatives of the United States Government in this Territory, and I am glad to have the attention of the Court called to the question of the Mormon faith."

"The Mormons came here in the time of King Kamehameha the Fifth. They asked for permission to exercise their faith here, and were told that as this country permitted the exercise of religious freedom, there would be allowed to do so as long as they did not violate the local laws. With this understanding they were permitted to establish themselves here and they made many converts."

"Since then the government has changed, but the law remains, and if that understanding has been violated, it is a matter of deep importance not only to the United States but also to the Territory, and this Court will be vigilant in cases of this kind, which may arise. I thank the jury for going into the matter."

KEKUOHA ATTACKS JURISDICTION

His Counsel, Achi, Says Supervisors Can't Judge Him

IMPEACHMENT BOARD ARRANGES PRELIMINARIES

CHAIRMAN AND DEFENDANT'S ATTORNEY DISPUTE—SHERIFF CALLS FOR INVESTIGATION.

County headquarters was crowded last night when the Board of Supervisors, for the first time in its existence, sat as a board of impeachment.

Deputy Sheriff Kekuoha of Koolau, as the result of a petition signed by citizens, supported by affidavits, is the subject of the proceedings, charged with malfeasance in office. Sheriff Brown, Detective Doyle and Officer Leal declare that Kekuoha neglected his duty in a shameful manner in connection with a Japanese murder case at Kahuku. Attorney W. W. Thayer says Kekuoha is a rascal and makes affidavits, with specifications, and a Koolau family on oath deposes that Kekuoha tried to make money out of a little love affair between a Chinese and their daughter.

Kekuoha was present. He wore an immense smile and a flower in his button-hole to match.

All the Supervisors, save Andrew Cox of Wailuku, were present.

County Attorney E. A. Douthitt was in evidence, ready to guide the Board safely through its new experience.

Charles Achi, attorney for Kekuoha, was very much in evidence, ready to guide his client through his new experience.

Chairman Geo. W. Smith, "Judge" Smith, as some remarked outside the hearing of the honorable body, announced to his official brethren of the Board, or bench, the purpose of their assembly, whereupon Supervisor Moore offered the following resolution:

"Whereas, On the 10th day of April, 1906, a petition for the removal from office of George Kekuoha, Esq., the duly elected Deputy Sheriff of the District of Koolau, Island and County of Oahu, was presented to this Board, and which said petition was signed by more than twenty-five (25) qualified electors within the District of Koolau, County of Oahu, which said petition requested this Board to remove the said George Kekuoha from office upon the ground of malfeasance committed by him in office, and his maladministration of the same, and

"Whereas, In support of said petition certain affidavits were annexed to the same and made part thereof, and

"Whereas, It is the desire of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Oahu that the charges, statements, matters and things contained in the said affidavits be investigated by the Board of Supervisors of this county; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the County Attorney be instructed to draw up formal articles of impeachment and charges against him, the said George Kekuoha, based upon said affidavits aforesaid; and be it further

"Resolved, That when the County Attorney shall have drawn up said articles of impeachment and charges as above set forth, that a copy of the same be sent to the said George Kekuoha by the County Clerk of the County of Oahu, and that said George Kekuoha be notified and directed to appear and answer the said articles of impeachment and charges ten (10) days after the service of the same upon him; and be it further

"Resolved, That the County Attorney of the County of Oahu be, and he is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to prosecute the said charges against the said George Kekuoha before the Board of Supervisors of the County of Oahu, sitting as a board of impeachment."

Achi, following the reading of the resolution, jumped in with a demurrer. He was told to wait, the Board was not yet a board of impeachment, the resolution not having been adopted.

Supervisors Archer and Adams thought the Board had enough to go ahead on; that the petition, supported by the affidavits, was all that was required for the Board to go ahead.

Again Achi edged in and demanded to be heard.

Considerable discussion followed as to whether the petition and affidavits constituted sufficient charges or whether a formal charge should be made, during which Achi was asking to be heard and Chairman Smith was asking him to be quiet.

Adams moved that they become a board of impeachment and the motion was carried and Chairman Smith of the Supervisors was made chairman of the board of impeachment.

Then Achi let loose his gun and declared the board had no jurisdiction in the case, since Kekuoha had not been elected to county office.

Smith said Kekuoha was not yet on trial and that he, Achi, merely had the floor through courtesy. This was repeated on several occasions in the next few minutes.

"Was Kekuoha elected to office?" asked Smith.

"He was elected by his district to a district office, not by the County to a County office," said Achi.

"Was he elected? Answer my question by 'yes' or 'no,'" said Smith.

Achi would not answer by "yes" or "no," and Smith finally instructed the County Clerk to take no notice of anything further Achi might say.

The resolution prepared by County Attorney E. A. Douthitt was then read.
